

WHERE TO FIND NALOXONE IN NEW MEXICO

Naloxone, also called Narcan, is a safe and effective medicine that reverses an opioid overdose. Naloxone is approved by the FDA and does not require a prescription. It helps treat overdoses from drugs like prescription painkillers, heroin, and fentanyl. Learn how to use naloxone at NMHarmReduction.org.

DOH Public Health Offices

- In person services
- Available at no cost
- Locate an office closest to you at NMHIVGuide.org

01

Order Online

- Available at no cost
- Shipped to your address/PO Box
- To order naloxone:
NMHarmReduction.org

02

Harm Reduction & Community Health Programs

- In person services
- Available at no cost
- Locate a program closest to you:
NMHIVGuide.org

03

Pharmacies

Walgreens, CVS, Target, Walmart, Smith's, or Albertsons all carry naloxone

- Over the counter for purchase
- Without a prescription (with insurance - possible copay)
- With a prescription (possible copay)

04

For help locating naloxone, call the NMHealth Helpline: 1-833-796-8773